

This proposed rule is a bad idea and would punish innocent broadcasters without stopping the inappropriate behavior. The proposed rule would be an expensive operational burden and would be a hazard to creative programming. The stiffer penalties being imposed on violators is a better approach without treating all as irresponsible programmers.

Antoinette Leone Ruzzier
Attorney/Owner